ZOOM Meeting

Daisy Aschehoug

The Anatomy of a Curve

Daisy Aschehoug is an American currently living in Nesodden, Norway.

"Quilt designs with curves draw me in every single time. Whether big or small, improvised or precise, drunkard's path or quarter circle square, I love analyzing what makes a curve work in a design. And I absolutely love sewing them. During our time together, you'll see how understanding the geometry in a curve will help sew curves of all kinds. The lecture is part inspiration, part demo, and the tiniest part high school geometry. By the end, you'll be ready to sit down at your sewing machine and give curves a try!"

Daisy Aschehoug

Since 2016 Daisy has been designing quilts for magazines and most of those quilts incorporate some element of curved piecing into a modern traditional design aesthetic. In 2020, she published her first book with co-author Heather Black, Quilt Modern Curves and Bold Stripes.

In addition, with a Masters in Environmental Studies, she is excited to explore how the resources she uses in her craft can reflect socially and environmentally sustainable practices.

President's Letter – June 2022

Our MPQG Quilt Show was such a triumph! What talent we have among us! Thanks again to everyone who contributed quilts to display and mini quilts to raffle. And thank you too to Quilt Show Director Joan Costello, her able and experienced back-up Kathrin Brown, and the many, many members – and family and friends of members – who gave their time and talents to make our 3-day event the tremendous success it was. What a treat to see quilty friends again – in person! – and meet so many enthusiastic new members, many of whom had never before taken part in, or even seen, our past quilt shows. Welcome, everyone!

While all of our Quilt Show fun is top of mind, would you like to see a quilt of your making in our show next year? Create a Guild Challenge Quilt. This year it's "Flying Geese Folly": 18"x18" with at least 3 flying geese blocks. That's it. The rest is up to you – any colors, style and techniques. Due in August, it will likely have two showings, the first at the Monterey County Fair and the second at our quilt show next spring. Our current Challenge Quilts, "Home Is Where the Heart Is", will even have a third showing, in the beautiful new gallery of the Pacific Grove Public Library from July 8-September 1.

Meanwhile, our good work goes on with heart pillows and community quilts in many sizes. Complete kits for finishing quilts are available and your efforts are always appreciated. More information on this and much more follows in this issue of Pines & Needles. Read on and enjoy!

Vice President's Message

This is the time of year when I reach out to the members in search of volunteers. I know that many of you had a terrific time being part of the workings of the quilt show and now it's time to consider a bigger commitment to the Guild.

Several positions are open including:

- Secretary
- Activities
- neonatal quilts
- and more.

Please contact me if you are interested and I'll find the best fit for you.

Tech Help Needed

We are returning to in-person meetings in July. The Board would love to continue to offer ZOOM access to those meetings! We need a volunteer to take charge of this outreach. Are you interested in learning some new technology and helping us stay in touch with members who are home-bound or reside outside of Monterey?

Please contact Joan Costello (beachbreak1250@gmail.com) to volunteer.

Quilts By The Bay 2022

What a Show!

After two COVID-cancelled quilt shows, 2022 was the year! The collection of quilts had to be the best ever, filling the Hall with beauty, color, and heart. Many people shared how impressed they were by the variety and quality of the quilts, but the sentiment that I heard most often was how very great it was to be together again!

As in the past, the show was a very popular part of Good Old Days with 556 paying attendees. The attractively laid out garage sale brought in about $2,600 and the delightful mini quilts had about $1,300 in ticket sales. Dizzy Geese has finally found a forever home with Helen Egerton after earning the Guild close to $3,000. The Awards Party was well attended and delightful.

I am so grateful that so many of you made this show so smooth and easy. Thanks to all the volunteers and to these committee chairs. Each of you did an amazing job!

Membership News

We have three new members in the guild:

Noreen Halvey	Monterey
Elizabeth Latona	Marina
Kayla Otteson	Salinas

Welcome and remember: to quilt is human, to finish devine!

On another note I would like to give a shout out to all the volunteers who helped as white glove ambassadors and quilt show security. Thank you for sharing your knowledge and understanding, your passion and your hearts. A special thank you to whoever it was that explained long-arm quilting, in German, to our family's little Tanta Lisa on Sunday. Tante Lisa is 97! You made her day!

July Workshop – Zoom

Intriguing Interleaves

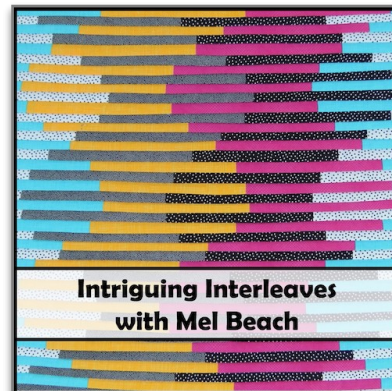

Mel Beach

(6-hour workshop is split into two sessions)

July 16, 9am - 1pm

July 23, 9am - 11am

Unlock the fun and intrigue of Interleave quilts. This workshop will reveal all the secrets behind creating the illusion of curves and transparency using only straight line stitching. Best of all, Interleave quilts are assembled using a quilt-as-you-go technique, so your unique Interleave quilt will be pieced and quilted at the same time!

Mel is passionate about teaching/lecturing, with a focus on quilting on a domestic machine and modern quilting techniques. Starting in 2016, Mel has taught for quilt shops, guilds and quilt shows all across the United States including several large venues: Road to California, Pacific International Quilt Festival, Virtual Quilt Show, Online Quilt Festivals, Virtual Quilt Festival, and Craft Napa.

Workshop fee: $46 (includes Pellon 820 – 22” x 22” which will be mailed upon registration.)

Horn Sewing Table Available

Hi, Jeanne Krener here. I have a ten year old Horn sewing table which needs a new home with another MPQG member. It's 29" x 60" and has locking casters. The table is 31" high. The sewing machine shelf is 26" high and 23" wide and 11.5" deep. The electronic lift is not presently operable but might be repairable. Free to another MPQG member for the asking and pickup from our garage by late June. (We live just inside Carmel Valley.)

If you are interested, email me at jkrener@gmail.com before June 15.

Community Quilts

Congratulations all on an EXQUISITE, INSPIRING, FIRST CLASS quilt show. The talent and teamwork in our Guild are extraordinary. You are also generous as evidenced in the Community Comfort Quilt display. And a special thank you to the women who picked up finishing kits AT THE QUILT SHOW to take home and finish! My heroes.

Community Comfort Quilt display.

Today I was talking to a stranger at Bokay Nursery and she told me how much one of our quilts helped her bond with her CASA kid about 12 years ago. "What you're doing makes a difference; you may not see it but it leaves an impression on the children. Please let your group know," she said.

I have several other finishing kits ready to go. Also need people who'll bind quilts if the quilter can't. Thank you so much for all you do for our community.

MPQG Heart Pillows Project

We had a grand Quilt Show over last Mother's Day weekend with Good Ol' Days vendors, friends and neighbors. We had very nice displays on the tables to show the charity and learning options our guild and partners have to benefit our community.

The National Charity League, NCL, Monterey Bay has proudly partnered with MPQG supporting their efforts in creating quilts for Incubator Covers and hospitals. Their young ladies have also learned to sew by making Heart Pillows for Breast Cancer treatment patients.

Since 2019, NCL has served almost 750 hours supporting the projects of MPQG. Their efforts and the efforts of our guild members were admired by many people over the days of the show.

We have stuffing for anyone that would like to participate with the Charity Heart pillow project. If I can help you participate in this cheerful and much appreciated project, please contact me at kcpapenhausen@gmail.com, and put "Heart Pillow" in the subject line.

I can provide stuffing or meet you for pick up of pillows completed or needing stuffing. Maybe meet at Back Porch Fabrics, Gail's new location, at 218 Grand Avenue, in Pacific Grove. My message landline is 831-624-2700 for questions or comments.

Thanks to each of you that participated this past month. Hopefully, I can pick up some more pillows from members to help fill the current bag for delivery before the end of June.

Happy Sewing.

Flying Geese Challenge

Fellow quilters, now that the show is over it is time to look forward to making a small challenge quilt.

The Challenge was presented in February – Flying Geese Follies. The quilts will be due in August.

Each quilt must contain 3 Flying Geese blocks:

- They can be any size – how many (or few) Flying Geese can you fit on your quilt?
- The geese can be flying around in a wedge, or can be a gaggle nesting in one corner.
- Use any technique you wish: appliqué, piecing . . .
- Feeling “artsy”? Incorporate the Flying Geese into a scene, flying over a building, trees, or a pond.
- Only the sky (and your imagination) are the limit.

Each quilt should measure 18” x 18”
and contain 3 layers (top, batting and backing).

We would love to have at least 50-60 quilts entered, now that we have over 200 guild members we are hoping for a huge response to this challenge.

The quilts will be shown to the public as a whole group at the Fair, the next quilt show and hopefully at one more venue. People love to look at our quilts and the feedback of our skill and creativity is over the top with positive comments.

If you have never participated in a challenge, now is the time with this fun simple block, easy to construct, use your stash, no need to buy any new fabric. (Unless you absolutely have to) haha.

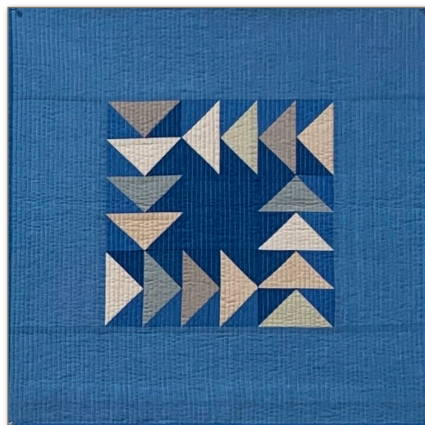

If you have any questions please contact Catherine or Phyllis to get your questions answered.

Enter this Challenge, make a small quilt, you won't regret it!!!!!!!

Catherine McGovern – mcjmcgovern@gmail.com
